I have not received a response from your office in relation to my letter to you -- dated August 1, 2017. I requested that your office reconsider the complaints I had filed. I tried to answer your questions regarding my attempts to resolve some of these issues. I have offered to supply you with court recordings, documents and statements from witnesses. I still maintain that a review of court docket entries is an inadequate and unfair way to assess whether to accept my complaints for further investigation.

These complaints included attorneys: Dan Brogdon, Brandi Smith, Rudolfo Arambulo, and Judge Eighthmy.

The complaint against Dan Brogdon has been accepted by the Supreme Court of Missouri. To the best of my knowledge it is still pending and under investigation. If possible, review his case to see how all are involved.

I made numerous allegations regarding filing of false documents, ethics and legal violations, violations of court rules and law. And supporting documentation. If you need additional, please advise.

I respectfully request that you review not only my original complaints and supporting documentation against Rudy Arambulo and Brandi Smith, but all four complaints I have filed, and the recordings from the hearings and trial. If there is other information that you need to pursue this please advise me and I will comply to the best of my ability. I believe a full investigation into the way our court system is operating and the way some Missouri lawyers are practicing law should require a full and complete investigation into the system.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara Figaro
